UC San Diego’s main campus is 1,200 acres of coastal woodland. Total campus enrollment is 35,816 (Fall 2017). The campus includes a Medical Center and Science Research Park, as well as Scripps Institution of Oceanography, which is situated on 170 acres of coastline below the main campus. The walk around the center of campus (below) should take about 30 minutes.

TOWN SQUARE
A hub of activity, especially on Tuesdays during the academic year, when we enjoy local food, produce and flowers at our weekly Farmer’s Market. T own Square is bordered by our Student Services Center, (to the East) which houses our Registrar, Financial Aid, & Admissions offices; Chancellor’s Complex (to the West) and Price Center student union (to the North).

PRICE CENTER
30,000+ visitors EVERY DAY! Price Center is home to 15 restaurants, a market, campus bookstore, gameroom, study lounges, computer labs, conference rooms, theatre, performing arts spaces, and a full-service salon, bank and postal center. It also houses Associated Students, Center for Student Involvement, the Cross-Cultural Center, Inter-Tribal Resource Center, and much more.

GEISEL LIBRARY
One of the nation’s top 25 public academic libraries, Geisel is named after Theodor Seuss Geisel, better known as Dr. Seuss. Dr. Seuss was a long-time resident of La Jolla and his original drawings, sketches and manuscripts are housed here. With 7 million+ digital and print volumes, the library’s vast resources are accessed more than 88,000 times each day. Browse our mobile app libraries.ucsd.edu/mobile

LIBRARY WALK
The main path leading out of Geisel Library is aptly called Library Walk. If you stroll down this main artery away from the library, you’ll pass the Career Services Center, Student Health Center and the Chancellor’s Complex on your right, Center Hall on your left is a major lecture hall, where most students will inevitably have a class or two. The walk ends at the School of Medicine.
