

We're hiring DYNAMIC UC San Diego students as College Ambassadors!

What's it all about?

College Ambassadors represent the university to 40,000+ visitors each year. We give the tours for prospective students and families.

Interested in applying for a great job?

Attend an Information Session October 21 from 3:00-4:30 pm (Multipurpose Room at Student Services Center) and learn first-hand what the job is all about!

Turn in your application to the Campus Tours Office by 4:00 p.m. on Friday, October 28. We're on the ground floor of the Student Services Center.

The Office of Admissions and Relations with Schools is hiring! Are you a current student who's interested in promoting UC San Diego? Are you enthusiastic and positive about your campus experience? Want to share with prospective students, families and guests?

Apply to be a College Ambassador!

You could be a paid student employee who conducts walking tours of the campus, appears on student panels, and participates in special events related to recruitment — and you'll be working with a great group of people! Paid training — hours to accommodate your class schedule — great team to work with!
